

Forty-Page Prize List For Fair

CASH PRIZES TOTAL
ALMOST SAME AS '40;
SOME CLASSES CHANGED

Despite reduced grants from the municipalities and the difficulties confronting financing efforts in wartime, it was reported at a meeting of directors of the Central Fraser Valley Fairs Association held Thursday night in Abbotsford, that cash prize money for the 1941 Fair totals only $25 less than for last year's exhibition.

Dates of the annual fair in Abbotsford are Friday and Saturday, Sept. 5 and 6, less than a month distant, so the meeting Thursday night was to report progress and complete final details, such as selection of judges.

Convenors of the Cattle Division requested last minute changes in the Prize List in Division B creating classifications for purebred bulls both over and under 18 months in each of three breeds and adding to the prize money in this division. These are incorporated in the printed Prize Lists which the Secretary commenced to distribute at the weekend. There was considerable discussion of Division C—Sheep but changes were deferred for further recommendation of the convenors and breeders and will be incorporated in the 1942 Prize List.

In view of lowered municipal grants and lack of labor grant this year it will be necessary to appeal for additional voluntary workers a day or two previous to the Fair to help set up tables, erect fences, tents, pens and do similar work.

THIRD DOG SHOW

The Dog Show enters its third year as an attraction at the C.F.V. Fair and George Busby, supt., announced there would be six trophies as well as the cup for the Best Dog in Show. He also announced there would be a prize for every child entering the pet parade in addition to the three main prizes. He also pointed out that dogs do not require registration papers in order to be entered.

There will be carnival attractions again this year, it was stated and efforts are being made by A. W. Webb's committee to secure a special grandstand attraction for either the first or second afternoon.

Mary Heide, 16, Gives Life In River Tragedy

Mary Heide, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Heide, Old Yale Road, Sumas, gave her life Sunday afternoon in an attempt to save that of a swimming companion. Betty Schmidt, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Schmidt of Abbotsford. Betty was saved by Ann Heide, 19, but the latter was unable to save her younger sister, whose body was not recovered until two hours later.

The tragedy occurred in the Fraser River near the Glenrose cannery at Sunbury, Delta, about 5:30 p.m., Sunday. The three girls were swimming until Ann thought that it was time to go home. She called to the others and went to dress. Mary, however, stayed in the water to give Betty Schmidt a swimming lesson. The river current carried both girls to deep water. As Betty was unable to swim, Mary Heide went to her assistance.

Ann, now fully dressed, noticed the plight of the girls and jumped into the river and grasped the two younger girls who were clinging together. Slightly hurt from striking an obstruction when she leaped into the water, Ann found herself sinking and then the three girls were momentarily separated. Mary and Betty began to go under. When Betty reappeared, Ann pushed a scantly out to her and pulled the girl to safety, but she could not find her sister. Dragging operations under direction of B.C. Constable Scott Fenton of Ladner resulted in recovery of Mary's body about 8 p.m. and it was (Continued on Page Eight)

SERVICE UNIT RCAF PASSES THROUGH AREA

All the expensive ramifications that enter into mechanical warfare were brought closer to this peaceful farming district on Friday when an important auxiliary of the RCAF passed through the M-S-A Area en route from Alberta to the Coast. This was a fleet of refueling tank trucks and service vehicles, 13 units in all. There were six efficient-looking Canadian-made tank trucks with their special equipment for fueling planes, a fire-fighting truck in case of plane crashes at airfields, an ambulance truck and two service or supply trucks which, on this convoy, acted as carriers for two small tractors used in towing planes into position, hangers shops or for other field duties.

Mrs. J. A. Taylor Is Appointed To Hospital Board

62 PATIENTS IN JULY; HEATING EQUIPMENT TO BE IMPROVED AT ONCE

Mrs. J. A. Taylor, wife of Dr. J. A. Taylor, M.H.O., was appointed a director of M-S-A General Hospital at the monthly meeting of the Board of Management on Monday night. She will complete the balance of the term of office of Mrs. J. M. Rowley of Abbotsford who recently resigned on account of pressure of Red Cross work and other activities. D. S. Blacklock was also appointed to the Board as a Matsqui representative, succeeding George Beharrell, Jr., who was unanimously elected at the annual meeting in March but has been unable to act.

The automatic coal stoker attached to the furnace will be replaced with an Iron Fireman. It was decided, and additional equipment installed to force adequate, regulated heat throughout the hospital.

MONTHLY REPORT

The monthly report of Miss Margaret Mason, R.N., acting matron showed that 62 patients had been treated during July, five less than in June. Of the 62 patients treated in July, 21 remained from June, 33 were admitted during the month and 8 were new born. There were 45 patients discharged during the month, two died and 15 remained in hospital on Aug. 1.

Matsqui provided 26 of the patients and they received 143 days of care. Thirteen came from Sumas and their treatment totalled 73 days. Five from Abbotsford had 30 days treatment, three from Langley 39 days and six from Mission 32 days. There were also one Board of Management on Monday night from Chilliwack and eight from unorganized districts for 60 days. Out-patients numbered 10. The daily average was 12 patients and the average stay per patient was six days.

Record Congregation Attends Memorial Service at Cenotaph

CHURCHES CO-OPERATE AND MILITARY BAND ATTENDS; EVENT HELD IN AREA FOR NEARLY QUARTER CENTURY

OVER 400 AT ANNUAL MEMORIAL SERVICE;
VETERANS COMMENDED

"Our democratic freedom—our religious freedom—had its birth at the Cross of Calvary. May I remind you that it has been kept alive by those who have been willing, if necessary, to die for it."

A congregation estimated at more than 400 persons set an outstanding attendance record at the annual Memorial Service held at the Cenotaph in Abbotsford on Sunday evening and heard a stirring address by Rev. Alfred J. Loughton, chaplain of M-S-A Branch No. 15, of the Canadian Legion, from which address the above paragraph is quoted. Participating also in the program were Rev. D. Donaldson, who led the service; Rev. H. E. Roberson, Scripture reading; and Mr. F. Butler who conducted the prayers.

Held under the auspices of the M-S-A Branch of the Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L., and with the co-operation of the churches in the Area, the service enjoyed the advantage of musical accompaniment to the hymns by the band of the 2nd Battalion, Westminster Regiment, from New Westminster. Numerous floral tributes were placed on the Cenotaph during the service.

Lieut.-Col. W. J. Williams, Officer Commanding the 2nd Bn., personally attended the service and later took the salute with George Cruikshank, M.P. as the veterans paraded back to the Legion Hall. There was a record turnout of veterans, some 65 participating and Col. Williams, in addressing them at the Hall, complimented the Ex-servicemen on their attendance, appearance and discipline.

642 Acres In Tobacco on Sumas This Year Expected to Return $150,000 Crop: Harvesting Now In Progress

VISITORS AT FIFTH FIELD DAY VIEW FIELDS, KILNS AND HARVESTING, LEARN INTERESTING DETAILS ABOUT IMPORTANT LOCAL INDUSTRY

With last year's crop returning $116,000 to the district from about 425 acres, tobacco growers on Sumas reclaimed lands feel they can reasonably expect $150,000 from the 1941 crop now being harvested from 642 acres. This is what visitors attending the annual field day of the Sumas Tobacco Growers Co-operative Association learned during a tour of plantations on Saturday. There were about 40 guests including George Cruikshank, M.P., and they were conducted among representative tobacco farms by John Kovacs, president, and W. C. Blinch, secretary, of the growers' association, and T. A. Leach acted as tourmaster.

HOP PICKING TO BEGIN AUGUST 25

It is expected that hop picking operations will commence at Canadian Hop Growers Ltd., Sumas Prairie, about Monday, August 25, and continue for at least a month. Officials report a heavy crop and 25 more acres of bearing vines this year. Over 2000 pickers have been booked and everything is in readiness for their arrival. No date has been set for picking to commence at the Ord Hop Gardens but the crop is very good this season and for the first time the hops also look exceptionally good at the Kamloops branch of the Ord operations.

WILLINGDON DEAD AT 74

The Marquess of Willingdon, 74, former governor general of Canada, died in London, England, Tuesday. Lord Willingdon, the first governor general of Canada to represent the King and not the British Government, was in Ottawa from 1926 until 1931, when he was appointed Viceroy of India. He was born September 12, 1866, and was educated at Eton and Cambridge.

F.V.M.P.A. settling rate for July was 44c per lb.BF, highest paid for July milk since 1930

An early season made it possible for the hosts to show all operations from the mature plants in the field through the harvesting processes to the leaf curing in some of the 80 kilns that now dot the district. The kilns at the "Spencer" farm were first visited then tobacco in the field was viewed at farms of Louis George, Andrew Kish, Joe Sztuhar, J. J. Reimer, Andrew Renner and President Kovacs.

Brief speeches were made by some of the guests. Reeve Alex Hougden welcomed the visitors to Sumas. George Cruikshank, M.P., expressed his interest in the industry and assured the growers of his support. Milton Switzer spoke on behalf of Abbotsford & District Board of Trade and Dr. V. C. Brink for the University of B.C. G. E. W. Clarke, district horticulturist, announced the results of field judging placing tobacco crops of J. Kovacs, A. Kish and Andrew Renner in that order.

The growers stressed the importance of the crop to the district pointing out that everything but the twine used was bought locally. Investment in kilns and other equipment was estimated by Mr. Blinch at $100,000. While in 1938-39 returns had barely met the average cost of production, 13c to 15c a pound, last year the return was 19c and this had encouraged larger acreage. The visitors were also shown the benefits of the new system of irrigation of the reclaimed lands and how it induced production on formerly poor or barren lands. It was said fields visited should produce upwards of 1150 pounds per acre. There are about 35 growers this year and they have from eight to 28 acres each in tobacco. Five new kilns have been built this year, cost averaging about $800—a sharp advance due to war conditions.

Seaman Leary Has Exciting Life In Navy

Home on leave, his first since November 1939, Able Seaman and Anti-Aircraft Gunner Joe Leary, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Leary of Abbotsford, has little to say of 2½ years experience in the Canadian Navy but a great deal in appreciation of the parcels and letters sent him by local organization. He has great praise also for British Airlighter pilots and, in turn, reports that English people in general are very appreciative of Canadian co-operation in the fight against the Nazis.

"Leave is good," is Leary's only comment following 14 months of active service. However, one understands after a chat with him that the past year or so has been interesting. For example, his destroyer was only one hour distant from the epic naval battle which resulted in the sinking of Germany's largest and newest battleship, the Bismark, and at one time the chase led directly toward the Canadian ship's route. The destroyer also participated in the evacuation of refugees from France and was under fire of shore batteries during part of these operations. He has been on channel patrol and convoy duty and, as travelling escort, has also visited the principal cities of the United Kingdom. Leary gained his admiration for British fighter pilots when he was in London during the daylight raids over the great city, his praise (Continued on Page Five)

The Farmer's Share

(The Comox Argus, Courtenay)

The Canadian Federation of Agriculture, an organization that is giving intelligent publicity to the farmers' place in the Canadian scene, has issued a booklet showing just how little cash the farmer gets.

The average investment in a Canadian farm at the last census in 1931 was $7,000. This income was slightly less than the average wage of a worker in industry with no investment whatever. The organization producing these figures appears to have the right to say:

"Due to the fact that his average income has been so low the farmer has had to forego expenditures for anything but absolute necessities with the result that his reserves of all kinds are gone. The family wardrobe is bare, the buildings are badly in need of repair, he is using equipment that should have been 'junked' years ago. In many cases he has run into debt in order to keep going. Asked to produce bacon and cheese at depression prices he is unable to do so."

Usually a war brings prosperity to the farmer but this war is different since avenues of international trade are clogged and the government has pegged prices. Therefore when the housewife finds she has to pay a few cents more for her butter or her eggs she should know that the money is going into the pockets of people who need it and have earned it.

Time Has Proved Them to be Right

The elevation of R. C. Vaughan to the presidency of Canadian National Railways, in succession to S. J. Hungerford, who becomes chairman of the board, is a reminder, says the Kamloops Sentinel, of the days a few years ago when these two were in the forefront of the opposition to the proposal to do away with the Canadian National. Time and events have proved Mr. Hungerford and Mr. Vaughan to have been right, and have also supported the argument, to which the Sentinel adhered, that the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific both are indispensable to a growing Canada's needs.

Had Canadians listened three years ago to the prophets of woe, Canada's war effort would today be hamstrung by lack of rail transportation. Today, with both systems intact and with each at a higher peak of efficiency than ever before, the volume of traffic strains their combined resources. Today, Canada can see the value of the two railway systems; and today Canadians should be ready to admit that though Canada's railway facilities may be still a bit ahead of the nation's peacetime needs, the day is not far distant when peacetime needs will catch up.

A Sobering Thought

From many sections of the country come reports that a large number of Canadian motorists want to be rationed by regulation rather than do it voluntarily.

Most of these have not yet grasped the situation. They do not understand that any form of rationing would require at least three months preparation and that it would not be sufficient to start saving gasoline and oil in October. They do not see that fuel must be saved during the peak consumption months of August and September. They do not realize that even if it were possible to put any scheme of rationing into effect immediately such a move would dislocate Canada's wartime industrial economy to an extent that would cause untold damage to our war effort.

On top of these considerations, it is evident that many of those who are crying for a scheme of rationing do not see the grave possibility that one feasible form of rationing in this country would be to take all passenger cars, except those used for business and professional purposes, right off the highways.

The appeal to the Canadian public to reduce the consumption of gasoline and oil arises out of dire necessity. Individuals in a free country have a right to offer suggestions in an operation of this kind, but none will feel that he has the right to ignore the appeal for a cut in consumption, just because his suggestion is not accepted.

The Functions of the Press

This is one of a series of editorials specially designed to acquaint our readers with the various functions of the Press in a democratic community. Following is No. 10.

This is the closing editorial of a series which was designed to provide our readers with a better understanding of the functions of the press which serves their community. An attempt has been made to deal briefly, simply and adequately with the many phases and relationships between the newspaper and the territory it serves. It is not without purpose that this editorial has been left until the last, because in a sense it sums up what has been said in the previous editorials about the aims, objects, ideals and problems of the community weekly newspaper.

The purpose of this series has been to give a glimpse of the intangible things about a newspaper—the soul if you will. For the newspaper has a soul, and that is what makes it such an important asset in the district it serves. We borrow these words from another writer to explain just why we believe that your newspaper is your guarantee of freedom.

"I am the guarantee of the Canadian way of life—the way of liberty—the way of equal opportunity—the way of free enterprise—the divine way and the true way for national well-being and upward advancement.

Weekly I go into your home—in winter and summer—in spring and fall. I chronicle your birth, your marriage, your death, and the intervening years which mean for sorrow or joy, depression or exaltation, health or pestilence, poverty or wealth, weakness or strength.

Freeborn am I and true to my heritage. I am not the subservient carrier of propaganda which enabled a Hitler to become master of Germany, nor am I the complacent press which contributed to the downfall of France. I am a friendly visitor. You'll find me constantly at your right hand, week after week. I have character, and even when I hurt you, I know you would not have me spineless.

I provide you with special civic service. I support to the last drop of my ink your charities, your Red Cross drives, your school, your church, and your service organizations. Yes, I assist in the building of community character.

Through advertising I promote your trade, move your commodities, advance your living standards. I am a bit bashful about mentioning these things, but I want you to rest assured that I am your friend.

I am the Canadian home town newspaper, and without me your liberties would vanish."

"Once you become deaf to criticism—you also stop hearing applause."—Walter Winchell.

CANADA'S WAR EFFORT

A weekly review of developments on the Home Front.

Part of Third Canadian Division and other troops arrive in Britain on largest convoy to leave Canadian shores since outbreak of war. It comprised infantry, artillery, ordnance, army service corps, engineers and other units. Canadian, Australian and New Zealand airmen were also in group. This brings number of Canadian soldiers, sailors and airmen now overseas to approximately 100,000.

The Air Force has sent out a call for skilled tradesmen to meet insistent demand for ground crew in Royal Canadian Air Force. Fitters, riggers, metal workers, instrument workers and electricians are wanted.

The Royal Canadian Navy is soon to organize a women's auxiliary unit. They will be used for transport duties and as nurses.

Air Commodore His Royal Highness the Duke of Kent continues tour of Air Force establishments in Canada.

A total of 921 small-craft have been ordered under Canada's $8,000,000 small-boat program. About 350 of these have now been delivered. They include small-boats ranging from tiny collapsible assault boats to fast motor torpedo boats. They are being made for Canada's Navy, Army and Air Force, for the British Navy and for the British Air Ministry.

Contracts calling for manufacture of 400 more speedy Hurricane fighters awarded to Canadian Car & Foundry Company, Limited. This order to be followed by production of single-engine Harvards for advanced training purposes at the rate of 80 a month. Noorduyn Aviation Limited to start work immediately on order for 500 additional Harvards. Work to be completed in 1943.

National Steel Car Corporation was recently given order for 200 Martin B26 medium bombers, at estimated cost of $27,500,000, and Canadian Vickers Limited recently undertook to build 39 PBV airframes at estimated cost of $7,410,000.

Most of corvettes ordered for British and Canadian navies from Canadian shipyards to be in commission before fall freeze-up. Many have already taken part in Battle of Britain. Sixty-six launched so far.

Hon. T. A. Crerar, Minister of Mines and Resources, points out that Canada ranks first in the British Empire in output of copper, zinc, nickel, aluminum, silver, platinum metals, cadmium, selenium, tellurium, radium and uranium, and second in lead, gold and cobalt. Canada, Mr. Crerar states, supplies Britain with hundreds of thousands of tons of non-ferrous metals every year.

Preliminary estimates for July indicate total value of Canada's imports and exports, excluding gold, reached new all-time high in first seven months of 1941.

Increasing orders for aluminum, nickel and other defence materials being placed by United States agencies in Canada.

Control of lumber prices in Canada, established two months ago as war measure, producing satisfactory results. Canada now consuming 45% of approximate annual lumber output of four and one half billion feet. Export prices are not under the control. Canada continues to ship to United States large quantities of lumber. This helpful to United States defence program and brings American dollars to Canada.

Canadian bakers can no longer sell sliced loaves, make special bread deliveries to householders, or use multi-coloured or double wrappers. This has been effected by order issued by War Time Prices and Trade Board on August 5. Bakeries are co-operating in plan. Step taken to conserve materials, power and labor for war program. Along with recent removal of wheat processing tax, step will make unnecessary any increase in retail price of bread.

More than one hundred thousand individual contributions so far to Queen's Canadian Fund for Air Raid Victims. Grand total contributed in four months to end of July is $500,000.

Ontario Division of Navy League of Canada places orders to supply members of Royal Navy, Royal Canadian Navy and Merchant Marine with two million cigarettes and twenty thousand plugs of chewing tobacco. Through arrangements with Commissioner of Excise, these gifts will pass to their destinations tax and duty free.

Army Camps Make Own Soaps

When Ernie Swalle of THE NEWS staff was vacationing on Vancouver Island recently he was surprised, on visiting one of the big military camps at the amount of salvage, particularly waste kitchen fats, that was being retained by the army and being converted into useful material again.

Instead of disposing of waste kitchen fats from Army kitchens to salvage concerns as previously practiced, larger military camps in Canada are planning to use them to make their own soaps.

An experiment tried at Victoria, Headquarters of Military District No. 11, when no economic way for disposal of waste fats from camps on Vancouver Island could be found, and dating back to 1½ years ago, has been successful as to justify investigation of similar plants where cooking is carried on for large Army groups.

Discovery of a former soap-maker, Sergeant F. B. Macdonald, in the ranks, helped the solution of the Victoria problem. At a cost of about $500, equipment including discarded Army ranges and oil drums was installed in an old building. Royal Canadian engineers co-operating with the conservation section of the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps.

APIARISTS ADVISED TO 'WINTER' BEES

Beekeepers will be well advised to "winter" their bees in future, rather than depend on importing package bees in the spring, declares C. B. Gooderham, Dominion Government apiarist, who is in Victoria conferring with department of agriculture officials.

The demand on foreign exchange for bee importations aggregates $200,000 annually, and this is causing some concern at Ottawa.

TIMELY TIPS

by a
Bradner Gardener

VEGETABLE GARDEN

Cabbage—Sow for a general crop on August 8.

Lettuce—Sow on August 20.

Cauliflower—Sow on August 24.

The exact time is very important with these crops. Dig the ground and sow seed as soon as dug. Herbs for drying should be cut and hung up to dry.

FLOWER GARDEN

Liner Border Carnations the early part of this month. Transplant seedlings of seed sown last month.

PHLOXES

Keep new growth of climbers tied up to save them from being broken. Cuttings of rock plants should be put in cold frame for spring planting.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

No responsibility is assumed by the paper for the opinion expressed by correspondents.

Editor A. S. & M. News,

Dear Sir:

As a new-comer to this district, and as one whose job necessitates a great deal of travelling around your municipal roads—one cannot but be appalled at the sight of so many weeds growing on each side of the highways.

On some roads, the whole space between the edge and the fence on each side are covered with beautiful specimens of thistle in full flower, and blowing seed like snow in all directions.

One can take the McDermot Rd. as a good example. Travelling around Ladner and Lulu Island districts, beautiful fields of green pastures and oats can be seen without a single thistle. Why not here? It is certainly a bad advertisement to the passer by.

List of resignations of teachers from the staff of the M-S-A Educational Area was increased to 13 with announcement by Inspector Towell that Miss Grace Hurum of Mt. Lehman Superior School staff has resigned.

DR. KENNETH E. BROWN

The death occurred at New Westminster on Thursday of Dr. Kenneth Edgar Brown, 27, Dominion government veterinary inspector, who had resided in Abbotsford for the past year but had been seriously ill for some time. The remains were forwarded to his former home in Ontario for interment. He is survived by his wife, who left Abbotsford for the East on Friday, by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Brown in Ottawa, three brothers and one sister.

centring on the manner in which they broke up the enemy attacks. WELCOME CANADIANS "Canada is tops," Leary says, with the English people, they are very appreciative of all forms of Canadian assistance and their homes are open to Canadians, soldiers, sailors or airmen. Canadians are always treated with the greatest kindness.

Leary has personally expressed his appreciation of parcels, letters, magazines, comforts, etc., sent by the Abbotsford Girls Comfort Club and by M-S-A Branch of the Canadian Legion. The parcels are most welcome and mail is something every man looks forward to more than anything else. One of the first things he wanted to do was express his personal thanks to meetings of these two organizations for what they had sent to him.

SCHOOLING HERE

Formerly a student at Abbotsford schools, Leary was welcomed home by a host of friends and school mates. Of particular interest to the latter were his badges. On his cuff was a star, gun barrel and letter "A" which denoted he was an Anti-Aircraft Gunner as well as Able Seaman. Crossed rifles also indicated he had attained proficiency as a marksman.

Premier T. D. Pattullo has replied to the recent protest by M-S-A farmers against Daylight Saving. Time as follows: Secretary Abbotsford & District Board of Trade: I am in receipt of your letter of July 24 containing copy of resolution with regard to Daylight Saving, and I may say that your representations will be given careful consideration. Faithfully yours (signed) T. D. Pattullo.

Will the holders of books of tickets please return stubs and money to Mrs. R. Gilmore when sold. Articles being drawn for are currently on display in Stordy's window.

KNITTERS

WORKROOM

Workroom convenors would like to take this opportunity of thanking all those generous people who, from time to time, send refreshments, or contributions towards lunch and afternoon tea. It all helps to lighten labor on a long, hot day.

MAGAZINES

We have received a host of enquiries re good magazines for reading matter for the troops. We now learn that the Abbotsford Motors Ltd., will take these for the Union Oil Co., who collect and distribute them. This is, of course, not the case in regard to magazines for scrap, which can be left at the Salvage Depot.

PRIZE LIST

has been well supported by advertisers. Compared with Prize Lists of earlier C.F.V. Fairs and of the prize lists of the Poplar and Sumas-Abbotsford Fairs prior to the amalgamation, the 1941 book shows steady advancement of both district and exhibition. There were 26 pages in the first C.F.V. prize list, a copy from the printing files of THE NEWS reveals. A copy of a "Sumas-Abbotsford Agricultural First Annual Exhibition at Whatcom Road Hall, Thursday, Sept. 22, 1927, Prize List" contains eight pages. F. A. Marshall was president, J. Frith and J. F. Cook, vice-presidents and W. C. Blinch was secretary-treasurer.

EARLY PRIZE LIST

Prize List of the First Fall Fair of the Poplar Community Club held on Thursday, Sept. 8, 1932, consisted of an eight-page booklet, including covers, plus one page of "errata and additions." The front cover shows Thos. Smith as president, L. J. Kettle as secretary and the following as directors: R. C. Sibbald, F. Marshall, R. J. Laxton, Mrs. Laxton, Mrs. Smith, H. C. Green, Mrs. Green, K. McKay, Mrs. McKay. Members were admitted free and non-members paid 15c. There are 12 divisions to the list though in two, Horses and Rabbits, there is but one class in each; other classes have from four to 33 classes. It is explained that: "prizes are not provided for several classes. However, an effort will be made by the directors to secure some suitable awards for these items. The object, however, was a 'ribbon fair'—everybody exhibit for the welfare of the district." There are but two advertisers: Abbotsford Motors, Schnare & Jacobson, Props.; and, on the back cover, The Daily Stores.

1932 SHEEP CLUB

A copy of this 1932 Prize List is displayed in The News window together with photographs of scenes at the Fair preserved by Coun. L. J. Kettle, secretary then and secretary of the C.F.V. Fair of 1941. The pictures are principally of the Sheep Club as the Fair was actually organized in order to give the boys and girls of the club, sponsored by the New Westminster Kiwanis Club, an opportunity to exhibit their animals. Ray Green is seen in one picture accepting the championship trophy from President Gilley of the Kiwanis Club (Ray is now on the staff of a large New Westminster store) while the sheep and their proud young owners are seen in other views as well as members of the Royal City service club and residents of the Poplar district.

EGGS CONTINUE PRICE ADVANCE

A continued scarcity of large eggs, with demand far exceeding the supply, sent egg prices one to three cents higher in Vancouver Monday. To the producer on the farm, Grade A large were up three cents to 35c a dozen, Grade A medium jumped two cents to 32c and Grade A pullets, one cent to 25c. Grade C peewees were unchanged at 14c. The same price movements took place in wholesale levels, with Grade A large at 40c, Grade A medium 37c, Grade A pullets 30, and Grade C peewees 19.

Farm Produce Price Rise On Valley Market

The upward trend of prices was marked on the Fraser Valley market Friday. Eggs went up 3c a dozen compared with a week ago, but this change had already been made elsewhere during the week. With the price to the producer 32c for grade A large and 30c for medium, retailers varied around 39c and 40c. Butter was up, being quoted at 39c and 40c a pound on various stalls, compared with 35c to 38c a week ago.

Wholesale beef was stated in some places to be up half a cent, at 18½ for grade A steer beef, but in other places this was denied. The wholesale quotation on pork was anybody's guess. Reflecting the pork situation, young pigs made a sharp advance, six-weeks-old porkers being sold at $6 as against a range of $4.50 to $5.50 last week.

Veal prices were reported unchanged although veal is scarce. Poultry, live and dressed, did not appear to be substantially different from recent quotations.

An abundance of plums featured the fruit market. On the vegetable stalls there were both increases and decreases. Notably beans, stringless green and wax, quoted a week ago at 3c a pound, were up to 7½c. On the other hand, cabbage, new carrots and radish were cheaper.

High prices did not appear to deter buyers. The market was thronged.

LADIES CIRCLE MEETS

The Ladies' Circle of the Upper Sumas Mission met at the home of Mrs. L. O. Lamson on Tuesday, Aug. 5. A delicious lunch was served. During the meeting a devotional reading was given by Mrs. R. Today's Fashions

Sleek jersey frock with striped dickey.

By GRACE THORNCIFFE
BROWN is cited as an important color for autumn and it is already appearing in the shops that are showing advance fashions. Right for now, and casual or important depending on its accessories, is this frock of satiny finish brown jersey. It may be worn with or without the brown and white striped jersey dickey which has a turban and bag to match. The dress is collarless buttoning with three buttons to the waist. A high placed yoke at the hips dips slightly in front where the skirt gathers are concentrated.

CLOTHING QUOTA

In order to make as representative and proportionate a supply of civilian clothing throughout the Dominion as possible, the National Red Cross Work Committee is issuing a quota to each province. British Columbia has been allotted children's garments (boys and girls 1 to 8 years old), layettes, men's shirts, women's nightgowns and women's clothing. This is not an emergency appeal and no time limit has been set. As soon as this quota is reached, the National Committee will set another.

THANKS RED CROSS

Count Edward R. Raczyński, Polish Ambassador in London, has sent the Canadian Red Cross Society a letter of gratitude for gifts of woollen coforts and hospital supplies to the Polish hospital and Polish troops in England.

"STITCH AND CHATTER"

Fifty High School girls, who have formed the "Stitch and Chatter" Unit of the West Howe Sound Red Cross branch, had a most excellent Red Cross Supplies exhibit.

TOTS RAISE FUNDS

The little girls of Estevan Point Sunday School accumulated $3 from three months collections and turned over this "precious sum" to the Tofino Red Cross.

RED CROSS EXHIBITS

Members of registered Red Cross groups throughout the Province who have made articles for the special Red Cross exhibit at the Canadian Pacific Exhibition are asked to send these directly to the Vancouver Exhibition Association, Exhibition Grounds, Vancouver, B.C., on or before August 18th and 19th. Do not send exhibits to the Provincial Red Cross warehouse in the Marine Building.

FIFTH COLUMN RUMORS

Fifth Columnists are again busy trying to undermine Red Cross work. This time the attack is on the salvage department. Their persistent rumor is that the Red Cross tinfoil salvage is sold to the Japanese. This rumor is absolutely without foundation. Embargo regulations prevent this leaving the country.

AFGHAN FOR RED CROSS

Six girls and three boys of grade 8, Port Coquitlan, have made a unique and colorful child's Afghan to be sent by the Red Cross for civilian relief in bombed areas. The girls knitted the squares from donations of vari-coloured yarns and the boys designed the colour arrangement. Names of the workers were outlined in embroidered stitch on the lining.

HOLD, SHOWER FOR MISS ELLEN OWEN

Members of the Ladies Aid of the Bradner Presbyterian Church were hostesses Friday at a miscellaneous shower for Miss Ellen Owen, whose marriage to Mr. Norman Hanson takes place this week. The committee in charge of the affair consisted of Mrs. J. A. Carmichael, Mrs. McMath, Mrs. R. J. Nicols, and Miss Underhill. The stage, on which was a profusion of flowers, had the appearance of a garden, surrounded by a picket fence. Musical numbers by Mrs. Munro, Mrs. Tullberg and Miss Beryl Underhill were much enjoyed. The gifts were presented in a model of the church, drawn in on a wagon by Ainlee Allen, Inger Floe, Shirley Sluggett and Eileen Sundstrom. Refreshments were served by the Misses Pat Allen, Ruth Allen, Isabel Donaldson, Alice Ernholtz, Erma Kruger and Sara McMath, members of the choir. Seated at the head table with the guest of honor were Mrs. A. K. Goldsmith, Miss Lucy Owen, Mrs. Hansen, and Miss Fay Hansen.

Statues Carved From Potatoes At Hobby Show

INVITE ENTRIES OF HOBBY ARTS, RELICS
AND COLLECTIONS

A new art has made its appearance in British Columbia, miniature statues carved from raw potatoes. These miniature pomme de terre statues range in height from 2½ to 4½ inches. They are carefully carved, and then finished in color. These potato statues are one group of oddities that will be seen at the Hobby Show at the Canada Pacific Exhibition this month.

Another interesting entry is an inlaid table made of 5000 pieces of wood, using 25 different woods. And for those who are superstitious, a collection of lucky chairs, 350 of them, every one different.

Other oddities to be seen are Sage Brush walking sticks; a collection of dolls from the "gay nineties" to date; an elaborate collection of clocks, an extremely valuable and interesting exhibit. Then there are jewels, geological freaks, model railways, rare china, a Cromwellian mantel clock, and dozens of strange and absorbing possessions of the Hobbyist.

Director Willie Dalton, who is in charge of the Hobby Show, claims there are thousands of Hobby Show exhibits in British Columbia that are eligible for the Show. The Show is not confined entirely to Hobby arts, that is, craftsmanship, but embraces specimens, collections, models, old charts, autographs, books, even toys. Anyone in possession of odd and rare articles of this character should exhibit them. They may easily be medal winners in the Show. Closing date for exhibits is August 18. Exhibitors should apply direct to the Exhibition Association for entry forms before that date.

Health Unit Enters 1941 Conservation Health Competition

Dr. B. Horning, Associate Field Director of the American Public Health Association, recently paid a visit to Abbotsford, where he conferred with Dr. J. A. Taylor, M.H.O. Dr. Horning in his official capacity was making an inspection tour of western Canada, visiting all health centres west of Winnipeg. Prior to his visit here, he had held consultations with health officials in Victoria and Vancouver, and upon leaving Abbotsford intended to visit the health unit at Kelowna in the Okanagan.

The primary purpose of his visit was to appraise the activities of the health unit staff with a view to having each health unit participate in the 1941 Health Conservation Contest which is sponsored jointly by the Canadian Public Health Association and the American Public Health Association with the assistance of the W. K. Kellogg Foundation of Battle Creek, Michigan.

The first award in the Western Division of the 1940 Contest went to the Peace River Health Unit with headquarters in Pouce Coupe. This is the fourth year of the Rural Health Contest and although some thirty units participated throughout Canada, British Columbia had two units entered last year, but it is expected that there will be a much larger enrollment in the 1941 contest. The Fraser Valley Health Unit has decided to file an entry this coming year.

Awards are made not necessarily to the healthiest communities, but

JUNIOR CALF CLUB JUDGING MEMBERS TO VISIT FARMS

Arrangements were made by James Reid at the meeting Thursday of the C.F.V. Fair Association to take members of local stock judging teams to Colony Farm on Friday, August 15, where judging sessions preliminary to the competitions at the Vancouver Exhibition starting Aug. 25 are being held. It is also proposed to give the local club members an opportunity to visit representative farms in the valley on Tuesday, the tour being arranged by Mr. Reid and Len. Zink, secretary of the Board of Trade. Interested calf club members in the Area should get in touch with Mr. Reid or Mr. Zink. Mr. Zink has been invited by G. L. Landon, district agriculturist, to take charge of the dairy cattle class in the junior judging competition at the Vancouver Exhibition on Aug. 25 and has also been invited by Dr. S. N. Wood of the U.B.C. to participate in the official judging and placing of the Guernsey class on Aug. 29 when some 300 members of the Future Farmers of America compete at the exhibition. In 1935 Mr. Zink went to Toronto with a Chilliwack judging team and in 1938 to Portland with the U.B.C. team that made a sweep of awards.
